ACTION TAKEN REPORT (ATR)

Title: Problem Solving and Data Structures for Employability Enhancement

Description: Basic premise is that software development tools in all languages come with large libraries, and many data structures are part of these libraries. It is an eventual shift in emphasis of data structures courses from implementation to use. A subset of the STL suitable for most applications is discussed. Students can design large projects early on, using existing software components. The advantage of C++ is that it is widely used in industry. Students perceive that the workshop they are learning is practical and will help them find employment, which provides motivation to persevere through the course.

Organized by CSE department in association with ISTE Student Branch.

Budget:

Dates: 06-09-2016 to 10-9-2016.

Keynote Speakers/ Resource Persons: Top Fresher, Hyderabad

Total Participation:

A Total of 108 Students from IV B. Tech CSE were participated in this workshop

Feedback:

Good to have the workshop on Data Structures. The explanation given by the resource person is clear and get the assurance for getting employability by learning from this type of workshop.

Action Taken: We planned to include in every semester.

Summary: Well-trained resource persons from Data Structures domain. 108 students are participated and learn the development of programs using Data Structures. It is the advantage for the students to learn beyond the curriculum.
