Event Category Technical

Event Sub-category Not Available

Description Conducted by WIE OF IEEE LBRCE SB on 31st, July, 2015

The Women In Engineering (WIE) of IEEE SB of LBRCE take the pleasure to bring to you an event on the 31st, July, 2015 with a unique approach and flare for exhibiting team spirit. The intent of the event is to develop interest in subjects and is being fun to participate in but with a competitive element

Details

The event is all about conducting a technical quiz for Electronics concerned students. It consists of three rounds

Round-1

This is the preliminary round in which students are given puzzles to solve for hints to relate them to electronic components and some other technical questions. Teams who got qualified in this round are only eligible for next rounds.

Round-2

Here, a circuit diagram will be given to a team and one person of the team is supposed to give directions and the other person has to draw the circuit following the directions given to him.

Round-3

In this round, firstly the team is given a bulky circuit which is divided into a number of parts. They have to assemble all the parts and explain the operation of the circuit thus resulted.

Later they have to share their views on either of the topics,

“Role of Engineers in Nation Building” or “Indian Engineering has lost its significance. Do you agree?”
