Description/Report on the Event:

In the advent of COVID – 19 there has been a paradigm shift in the education sector and unprecedented pressure on teachers to quickly adapt to online teaching. Teaching in a classroom vs. online teaching is not the same. This Webinar provided an overview of the key elements of online teaching and techniques that would enhance the effectiveness of online teaching.

The event started with an introductory speech and the resource person was introduced. The resource person has been identified as one of "The top 50 Flipped Learning Leaders in Higher Education Worldwide" by Flipped Learning Global Initiative (FLGI) and he has featured in their Annual List 2018, "100+ GLOBAL FLIPPED LEADERS TO LEARN FROM".

Different methods of teaching like flipped teaching, online teaching and blended teaching were the key words in the speech. Things like how to plan for online teaching, preparation, how to assess students, feed back to students and various online platforms, how to use them, etc. had been discussed in detail. Different questions were posed in between the talk and the talk ended with question and answer session.
